THE MOTHER OF A MURDERED SON AND THE MURDERER.—This incident is told by the Washington correspondent of the Boston Journal:

Yesterday, as Wirz was on his way from the court-room to the Old Capitol, a respectably dressed lady, between fifty and sixty years old, who had been waiting for the opportunity, asked the guard if that was the Andersonville butcher? On receiving an affirmative, she, in a frenzy of passion, endeavored to strike Wirz with her umberella, saying, "You wretch! you butcher! you murdered my son at Andersonville!" Failing to reach him, she seized a brick and implored the guard to let her get at him. She was with some difficulty restrained, and the prisoner conveyed to his quarters. It seems that the old lady was an Ohio widow, who had come on here to get the back pay of her sons, all of whom have belonged to the army. One was killed in battle, one murdered at Andersonville, another rendered hopelessly insane by his sufferings in the same slaughter-pen, and one only returned to his home at the close of the war.

A PARSIMONIOUS sea captain, answering the complaints of his men that the bread was bad, exclaimed, "what! complain of your bread, that is made from flour!—What do you think of the Apostles? They ate 'shew bread,' made from old boots and shoes."

The Daily Union Vedette.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, OCT. 11, 1865

Congressman for Nevada.

Next Wednesday evening, Colonel Chas. A. Sumner, aspirant for Congressman from Nevada, will address the citizens of Dayton at Doyle's Hall.—Virginia Daily Union, Sept. 30th.

There is, perhaps, nothing more satisfactory to the devoted patriot than a conviction that his country's and his own interests are under the guardianship of those who have the prosperity of the nation and the welfare of their constituencies directly at heart; and whose chief, if not only, ambition is, to so fill the position to which the votes of their constituents have elevated them as to prove themselves worthy the great trust reposed in them.

In the entire period of our national existence, there has never been a time when the necessities of the nation called more loudly for the election of men to Congressional authority in whom a pure patriotism, based on the eternal principle of justice, is the only feeling that impels them to take their stand as candidates for public honors; and who possess the necessary qualifications to carry on the war against the baneful influences that copperheadism is likely to bring to bear in the contest between a liberal progressiveness and an iron-cased conservatism.

When Nevada first donned the robes of state, she gave a Union vote that entitled her to take her place as one of the brightest stars in the luminous galaxy that adorns our national horizon. She then became the pride of the "elder-born," and a noble, consistent, and exemplary course, has marked her progress since. She has traitors in her midst; but the atmosphere of loyalty around them so far stifles as to render their respirations difficult. She has loyal editors of undoubted talent who are jealous of the nation's weal, and whose just rebukes and cutting sarcasms make the snake-like monsters writhe and twist with mortal agony.

She has a population of the same sturdy class of men whose giant intellects and brawny arms have made the name of an American the proudest title on earth. Like her neighboring auriferous sister and firm ally, the argentiferous state contains much of the cream of human nature. Her almost fabulous wealth and growing importance—her progressive tendencies—her strong Union proclivities—demand that she select for her Congressman one in every way qualified to represent her truly in the national halls. And who, of all those, who within the confines of her boundaries, have elected the spot to grace with the sacred name of home, is there more worthy, more fitting, more deservedly popular than the talented gentleman named at the head of the article.

The history of Col. Sumner is one on which the true American may meditate with just pride. He has, so far as we can learn, and we have made diligent inquiries concerning him, ever been a firm supporter of the Union cause—an unflinching opponent of oppression and wrong, and the friend of the oppressed—a devoted servant of the Government in the cause of which he has won merited honors—quick to discern and prompt to perform the duties of the several stations he has filled, he has made for himself a circle of friends such as the proudest might be justly proud to claim, and such as none but the truly worthy can secure the friendship of.

During his residence in the Eastern States, he was a most efficient phonographic reporter in Congress for some of the Eastern papers, and after his arrival in San Francisco, became one of the ablest of the talented literati of that city.

He was ever in the foremost ranks of Union men, and one of the most active in organizing Union meetings, at which he was invariably a welcome guest, and not unfrequently, one of the controlling influences. From the very commencement of our national difficulties, he labored most indefatigably in behalf of the Union cause, and it is not too much to say that the firm and unwavering support given to it by a not unimportant number, was traceable to, and the immediate results of, his zealous labors. He was an active agent in the campaign of 1860, and did his utmost to swell the vote for our lamented and martyred President.

In 1861, he left California for Washington, where he volunteered and served as a private in one of the earliest engagements for it's defence. He afterwards returned to the Pacific Coast and with[out] any application being made on his part for the position, was appointed Assistant Quarter Master at Fort Churchill, Nevada, which position he filled with credit to himself, and with honor to the Government.

In the fall of 1863, he received a commission as Colonel of the 1st Regiment of Nevada Infantry Volunteers; but owing to an order prohibiting futher recruiting for Infantry in Nevada, he, after expending some six thousand dollars and raising three full companies, was unable to retain his commission.

He again turned his attention to reporting, in the practice of which art he has but few equals, and fewer superiors. In the fall of 1864, he was elected Senator of Storey County, Nevada, and during the sitting of the Legislature, displayed an ability that ranked him among the ablest of that able and honorable body.

Although in the free and progressive nature of our national institutions, and by the liberty-loving citizens who are their patriotic supporters, the old land-marks of ancestral exclusiveness are less venerated than in other nations, where a titled progeniture is more favorable to individual advancement than moral worth or actual merit; yet it is some satisfaction to know that the connections and family of those whom we wish to honor are without reproach. And it will not be an unpleasant reflection to the friends of Col. Sumner that he is the nephew of the Hon. Senator Sumner of Massachusetts.

We are pleased to see the following notice of the Colonel's progress in the Gold Hill Daily News of Oct. 2nd.—LYON COUNTY PRIMARIES.—The primary election in Lyon county took place on Saturday, and resulted in the Congressional candidacy of Col. Sumner. This gives eleven (11) more votes in the State Convention to the man we believe to be pre-eminently qualified.

Col. Sumner is the soldiers' friend; and we have no doubt but the brave officers and men from Nevada, serving in this District, fully appreciate his worth and will act accordingly—the hissing of the Copperhead snake to the contrary, notwithstanding.

[SPECIAL TO THE DAILY UNION VEDETTE.]

New York, October 9.

Advices from Charleston state that Mayor MacBeth, and the Common Council and other members of the old civil goveanment of that city have been restored to exercise their functions and the principal municipal buildings given up to them, in accordance with a military order issued by Gen. Bennett, commander of the sub-district of Charleston, on the 2nd inst. The Mayor is to have jurisdiction of all cases between them, while the negroes are to be turned over to the Provost Marshall; but the military police will for the present be retained.

The organization of State militia is rapidly progressing; in some sections they are to be subject to National officers and co-operate with them in the supression of the prevalent lawlessness.

General Bennett has issued an order, directing subordinates to assist in the formation of this State and force every member which before joining, must take the National oath of allegiance.

There's a great stir among the South Carolina politicians in relation to the coming State and Congressional election. The candidates are issuing addresses to the people through the newspapers. Governor and Members of Legislature are to be elected 15th.

The Herald's Raleigh correspondence says, the people of North Carolina, especially those around Raleigh, are very decided in their approval of the emphatic way in which the State Convention disposed of the secession ordinance, by declaring it not only null and void, but to have always since its passage been so. That inhabitants are also represented as being extremely hostile to those men who assisted in plunging the State into rebellion. In the convention on the 4th inst., resolutions were introduced, but was laid over for future action, expressing the utmost confidence in President Johnson, thanking him for the course he has pursued toward the erring people of the South, to the gratitude of all, whom its believed he is entitled. Resolutions also endorse Gov. Holden, and express the belief that no State can ever again have a desire to abandon the Union.

New York, Oct. 9.

The Herald's Savannah correspondent says, the election in Georgia, proceeded quietly; no military were near the poling places, and everything in connection with the election being lauded by civil officers. In the majority of counties, but one ticket was run, and it is said a good class of men have been selected for candidates. In the interior of the State generally, harmony and quiet prevailed; the people accept with a fair amount of grace the new order of things, though planters coming into Savannah from sections, make a strong complaint of the negroes neglecting their work and say that in consequence the next year's crop will be a failure.

Farther Point, Oct. 9.

The North American from Liverpool Sept. the 28th and Londonderry 29th, has arrived. Bids for the Erie Railway are four times in excess of the amount required.

Arrests of Fenians is still continued, and Fenianism is said to have been discovered among the Irish residents in London; the Police are keeping strict surveillance over them.

Rev. W. H. Channing, has been lecturing in Liverpool on the Freedmen of America, whose future, he contended, promised the most encouraging results.

The appearance of the Asiatic Cholera at Southampton is disputed, but it was reported that the Yellow fever has appeared at Swansea. The Government has sent a Commission there to enquire into the matter.

The France Monituer, in alluding to the reported speedy evacuation of Rome, says that no doubt should exist relative to the intentions of the French government, for as soon as France shall consider the proper moment to have arrived, she will in concert with the Pontifical government, adopt necessary measures for the commencement of the evacuation in order that the withdrawal of the French troops may be complied with, at the appointed period.

New York, Oct. 9.

The Herald's Paris correspondent says there are not less than fifty thousand Americans at present traveling in Europe, spending at the rate of one hundred million dollars in gold per year.

St. Louis, Oct. 9.

The drug store of Penick & Loving, and the Queens' warehouse of H. B. Ketchun, at St. Joe, were burned on Thursday; Loss to the former is $60,000, and the latter $40,000, which are mostly insured.

Pithole, Penn., Oct. 9.

The Tanks of the largest flowing well in Pithole, known as the "great," containing four thousand barrels of oil, caught fire at about 1 o'clock this morning, spreading destruction in all directions. 13 derricks and engine houses were destroyed; total loss one hundred and fifty thousand dollars.

New York, Oct. 9.

This morning the counsel for young Ketchum, announced that he would put in a plea of guilty to the indictments charging his client with forgery. It appears that the prisoner proposes to plead guilty, but as the matters affecting his late firm and their creditors are still pending and is unfinished, and his explanations and testimony are still required by those interested, it's desirable to defer the plea to as late a day in the present term as practicable. The district attorney said such a request was not unusual, and gave notice that the plea must be put in on the last day of the term, and this was agreed to.

New York Oct. 9.

A Washington special to the Post, says the navy department has ordered the ex-rebel ram Stonewall, now at Havana, to be brought to one of our navy yards.

[Additional by the China.] Queenstown, Oct. 1st. The Fenian prisoners were brought before the Police magistrates at Dublin yesterday, including the editor and proprietor of the "Irish People" newspaper. Mr. Barry, counsel for the crown, made a long speech, and said that within the last fortnight, that three thousand five hundred pounds had arrived from America, to be expended in revolutionizing Ireland, and by that day's mail the government had intercepted a letter for one of the prisoners, named Sapper, containing a draft for £415 on the house of Rothschild, and several other letters containing bills of exchange.—The making of pikes has also been extensively carried on. One of the prisoners had made 2000 of these murderous weapons. Numerous revolvers and breastplates were also found in possession of the prisoners connected with the "Irish People" newspaper; he quoted an incendiary paragraph, urging the employment of a force, from members of that paper, which was about to be issued when siezed. Mr. Barry concluded his speech, by asserting that the fenians were powerful, both in Ireland and America, and trusted that the affair would, end forever such hopeless conspiracies.

The evidence was then given against the prisoners, and some of them were identified as being connected with the supressed Fenian organization. The investigation is still pending, and will probably last several days. At the present examination of six of the Fenians at Dublin Castle yesterday, it was put in, showing that the plot of the Fenians, was of the most sanguinary character; it was to put down the nobility, aristocracy and grand owners, and assassinate them all, on the breaking out of the rebellion. The Duke of Leinster and others were named for assassination. Linen manufacturers and others were to be called on to give materials to support the cause, under threats of extermination and the confiscating of their property if they refused to do so. The evidence of treason against the prisoners is said to be most complete.

The Herald's Toronto correspondent notices the significant speech of the Canadian Attorney General, McDonald. He said that Ottawa, ere long, would be a metropolis, one-third the size of the American continent, and the capital of all the British North American Provinces which the British have got, and which the Canadian authorities are determined shall be united in one grand confederation, in spite of all opposition, before another year has passed.

It is said that John C. Breckenridge proposes to become a British subject, and epter into the pork business.

Nova Scotia papers of the 28th ult., announces the arrival of Gen. Sir Fenwick Williams, lately commander-in-chief of the British forces in Canada. Gen. Williams has been sent out to take the management of Nova Scotia, which he hitherto obstinately refused, to see the desirability of the confederation.

The Fenians are creating a stir in Canada; agents of the organization recently visited Quebec and Ottawa, with a view of establishing lodges. It is reported that members of the Brotherhood lately left Toronto, on a special mission to Ireland.

The Herald's Brownsville correspondent says, the attack on Matamoros, by the Republicans, has been postponed until the return of their agent from the United States, sent to secure material aid. It is now said he has been successful beyond anticipation, and a vigorous campaign will soon take place, and make the Imperialists give up both Monterey and Matamoros.

[Additional per China.] The official Dublin Gazette of the 29th contains a proclamation disarming several baronies in Tipperary, Limerick and Waterford.

The London Times suggests that the Prince of Wales should visit Ireland occasionally, and points out that the royal family have passed more time on the continent than in the sister kingdoms.

Local and Miscellaneous.

The severe and continued rains are playing havoc with our office, the northern side of which is decidedly "on the cave in."

Hon. J. M. Ashley arrived here yesterday from the west, on route overland to Washington. He will tarry here a couple of days. Col. Prettyman, of New York, is to accompany the distinguished Chairman to the States.

The Saintly "Conference" dissolved on Monday, and turned up again yesterday, in the shape of a secular "Convention"—to regulate the price of produce, &c., and to dictate about dealing with the horrible "gentiles."

Camp Douglas Theatre, Thursday.—Potter's Dramatic Troupe will open the theatre in Camp Douglas, Thursday evening. The "Lady of Lyons" will be one of the pieces. The house will, doubtless, be crowded.

At the Salt Lake Theatre, this evening, Mrs. Hayne gives her great personation of Mariana, in "The Wife." Before the farce, an Ode on the death of President Lincoln, written by Mrs. Carmichael, a promising poetess of this city, will be recited, by request.

It continued raining for the past four and twenty hours. Whether 'twas the weather or the clouds or the windows of Heaven that did the raining, we know not; but one thing is beyond the shadow of a shade of cavil, to wit—that it was a constant and continued shower since this time yesterday.

Stage Robbery.—Passengers who came down by yesterday's boat, inform us that the Umatilla stage, on the way down, when near Powder river, was attacked by robbers and plundered of $16,000. The robbers, six in number, shot one of the horses; the passengers escaped uninjured.—Dalles, Oregon Mountaineer 24th ult.

Montana gentlemen are coming down here thickly. Among the late arrivals, we had the pleasure of noticing the names of Hon. Judge Williston, Col. Barris, Robt. Hill, Esq., Wesley Jones, and others, who are on their way to the States. Gov. Edgerton is expected tomorrow or next day.

The transportation train, accompanying companies A, D, and F, 6th Infantry, U.S. Volunteers, is detained in the canon, by some five or six freight wagons, which have upset, thereby blockading the road. The road is cleared and the train arrived last evening, at Camp, all right.

By a private letter, we learn that companies A, and B, 3d Infantry, were to be paid off on Tuesday, the 3d of the present month. We are also informed by the same letter that Gen. Hughes, of the O. S. Line, was on the same day to remunerate them for their labor in building the road.

Fenians, Attention!—Camp Douglas Circle Fenian Brotherhood will meet at its Hall, in Camp Douglas, on Wednesday evening, 11th inst., at half-past six o'clock. Every member in and around Camp is expected to be present.

Dramatic.—Another very full house at the Theater on Monday night. The historico-mythic tragedy of Medea was well performed, particularly Mrs. Hayne's heroine part, which was a piece of acting majestic and magnificent. Mr. Waldron's "Jason" was good; so were some other of the characters in the cast, of whom space prevents due mention. The comedy of "A husband for an hour" passed off pleasantly, and was played with sprightliness and spirit by several in the cast.

There be two æsthetic subjects on which more controversy has been wasted, than the respective merits of the "classic" and 'romantic' schools of drama, as Schlegel not inappositely assigned the titles. Medea possessed a dignity and a pathos, a depth and sustenance of argument, in consonance with the mighty art of its author Euripides. But that comedy was not natural, is an absolute, though highly so, in a relative sense—not true to general, but to local nature, and that a mighty unnatural locality, at that.

At the Fashion Course on the 20th ult., says the Tribune, the trotting match for $1,000 was won by Lady Warren; she winning three out of five heats against Lady McLellan.

In the Virginia Episcopal convention, Bishop Meade has taken ground in favor of reunion with the northern church. The North Carolina convention has chosen delegates to the general convention at Philadelphia.

Henry Ward Beecher may be seen five days in the week at his Westchester county farm, where he is now laying a tiled drain of great length and excellence. His house is a single store frame structure, presprising piazzas, and in it Beecher writes his lectures for the winter season.

It is reported that President Johnson and Secretary Seward look upon the recognition of the Mexican empire as an act "perfectly legitimate in itself, and which must eventually take place,"—without prejudice, however, to the maintenance of the Monroe doctrine.

Lt. Col. Johns, with companies A, and B, 3d Infantry, C. V. were to leave Denver for Camp Douglas, yesterday morning. We hope they may be favored with fine weather and a pleasant march. We appreciate the handsome tribute paid by the Denver News, to our volunteers, as they are deserving of the respect of all worthy and loyal citizens.

Artemus Ward is to write a comic novel; the advance sheets of his travels have been bought by an English publisher, and also fifteen hundred of the letter press of the Orpheus C. Kerr papers. So says an eastern exchange. Artemus' novel will be "comic," sure enough; and, we might add, his "comic" effort will be "novel," to the Henglish.

The Sacramento Union learns that there are one hundred men at work on a tunnel on the Pacific Railroad, a few miles above Dutch Flat. A contract has also been let to construct another tunnel in the same vicinity. This shows clearly that the company do not intend to make that place a stopping place for any great length of time.

Senator John Sherman, of Ohio, has written a letter to a New England society "for the protection of American industry." In it he says:

"Our necessities will compel us to levy very heavy taxes on imported goods. This is no longer a question of policy, but is a plain and obvious duty. Surely, in making this levy, we should not only seek as much revenue in gold as possible, but in doing so we should also protect the industry of our people."

By an advertisement in the San Francisco Bulletin, the Bank of California announces that hereafter the rate of discount on first class business paper or satisfactory collatorals will be reduced to one per cent. per month. This notice, coming from an institution representing so much capital and influence, virtually makes a new era in California financial affairs.

General Ochoa.—General Gaspar Sanchez Ochoa, Commander of the Liberal forces in Western Mexico, left by the Overland Stage Line Saturday morning, on his way to New York overland, to attend to the negotiations now pending in New York for a loan to enable him to commence an active campaign against the invaders of his country. He had intended to go by the way of Panama, but on consultation with his friends, it was deemed inadvisable for him to do so. The French Consul declared that the French Commander at Acapulco would seize him on board the steamer at that port, and although Gen. Halleck declared the law undoubtedly against any such violation of our flag, and it was not doubted that the commander of any American vessel in that port would resist, even to bloodshed, any such attempt, it was thought best to run no unnecessary risks, so the General goes overland. It is understood that the negotiations for the ten million ten per cent loan are nearly completed, and will be closed very soon after the General's arrival in New York. The General is quite a young man, heavy built, of modest manners, and made a favorable impression here during his one-day's stay.

School Girls.

BY FITZ GREENE HALLECK.

Merrily bounds the morning bark
Along the Summer sea;
Merrily mounts the morning lark
The sweetest song on tree;
Merrily carols the morning rose
The honey-sucking bee;
And merrily, merrily greets the rose
The honey-sucking bee;
But merrier, merrier far are these,
Who letter'd the wings of the morning breeze
A happy group of loves and graces,
Graceful forms and lovely faces.
All in gay delight outflown;
Outflown from dingy schoolroom cages,
Schoolroom rules and schoolroom pages,
Lovely in their teens and tresses,
Summer smiles, and Summer dresses,
Joyous in their dance and song,
With sweet mutely caresses,
Arm in arm they speed along.

THE editor of a French paper, in speaking of the dedication of a new cemetery near Lyons says that "M. Gascoigne had the pleasure of being the first individual who was buried in this delightful retreat."

A SAUCY Western paper says: "Horace Greeley is to deliver the annual address at the Minnesota State fair, at Minneapolis, the last week in September. His subject will probably be "The eradication of Weeds."

A SHOEMAKER was the other day fitting a customer with a pair of boots, when the buyer observed that he had but one objection to them, which was, that the soles were a little too thick. "If that is all," replied Crispin, "put on the boots, and the objection will wear away."

"WHAT are you about?" inquired a lunatic of a cook, who was industriously stripping the feathers from a fowl. "Dressing a chicken," answered the cook. "I should call that undressing," said the crazy fellow in reply. The cook looked reflective.
